Colliers announces new global news website, Colliers News

First website of its kind by global commercial real estate services provider

September 22, Toronto - The leading global commercial real estate services provider, Colliers International, has announced its new website, Colliers News. The site will be a single source for up to the minute news from Colliers International around the world and is the first website of its kind to be developed by a global commercial real estate services provider.

Colliers News (www.colliersnews.com) was developed to provide a central location for all news and announcements related to Colliers International. It is intended to facilitate the dissemination of news to our colleagues in the media and to the general public.

The new website features:

- Central repository for all Colliers news from around the world
- Searchable database of current and past releases
- RSS feed allows users to get up to the minute news
- Single point of access for media, both global and local
- Integrated into local Colliers websites
- Access to all global PR contacts

Colliers International is a worldwide affiliation of independently owned and operated companies.
